

As insurance costs skyrocketed, the Seamen's Center of Wilmington knew they needed to find an insurance broker that not only worked with them, but for them. Allen Insurance did just that when they lowered our insurance costs by over 50% while also providing increased coverage and an additional policy to better protect the building, vans and even our volunteers!